SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. High Command

a. Kr.Lv. of 15 April states Genpolk P.A. BELOV attended a festival evening in MOSCOW in commemoration of the fifteenth anniversary of the introduction of the honorary title "Hero of the Soviet Union." Genpolk BELOV was identified in MOSCOW in the fall of 1948. It is assumed that he held a position either within the Main Administration of the Commander of Cavalry or within the Main Inspectorate of the Armed Forces.

b. Izvestiya of 26 April gives Genmajor (Engr arty Serv) P.L.ROSHKOV and Col (Engr) N.I.MININ as "main controllers" of the Ministry of State Control.

c. Kr. Zh. of 3 May 1949 lists a great number of naval officers who were awarded orders in recognition of their outstanding accomplishment of government tasks. The officers who received the Lenin Order included Admiral G.I. LEVCHENKO and Rear Admiral V.P. KARPUNIN. These two officers had already been awarded the Red Banner Order in December 1947. Their present appointment is unknown. Admiral LEVCHENKO had been nominated as candidate for the Supreme Soviet by the KALININGRAD election district in February 1947.

d. Kr.Zv. of 6 May 1949 reports that, on the occasion of his fiftieth birthday, Chief Marshal of Arty N.N. VORONOV was awarded the Lenin Order. VORONOV is still believed to be Commander of Artillery of the Armed Forces.

e. "Pr. 25." of 1 June 1949 quotes Col TOLSTUKHIN as a member of the Main Intendence Administration of the Armed Forces.

- (6) Genpolk (Av) S.I.RUDENKO, known as CG of the Sixteenth Air Army in Germany until the summer of 1946. Since he led the review of parachute troops on Soviet Air Force Day, he may be Chief of the Main Administration of Airborne Troops at present.
- (7) Genpolk P.A. ARTEMYEV, CG of Ground Forces in the Moscow MD; Deputy of Marshal MERETSKOV, CinC of the Moscow MD.
- (8) Genleit (Av) V.I. STALIN, known as Commander of Air Force in the Moscow MD
- (9) Vice Admiral N.M.KULIAKOV, known as Deputy of Political Affairs of the CinC of the Soviet Navy.
- (10) Genleit (Av) N.P.KALANIN, known as Chairman of the DOSAV Organization Bureau.

i. Pravda of 21 July 1949 lauds the book Combat Record of the Soviet Army, written by Genmajor A.KOVALEVSKI; KOVALEVSKI was identified as Instructor at the Lenin Military-Political Academy in July 1948 and is believed to still hold this position.

j. Pravda of 24 July 1949 lists the following officers as having attended a solemn meeting on Soviet Navy Day:

- (1) Marshal SOKOLOVSKI, Deputy Minister of the Armed Forces
- (2) Admiral YUMASHEV, Deputy Minister of the Armed Forces; known as CinC of the Soviet Navy
- (3) Marshal (Arty) YAKOVLEV, Deputy Minister of the Armed Forces, mentioned as such for the first time
- (4) Fleet Admiral IZAKOV, known as Deputy CinC of the Soviet Navy
- (5) Chief Marshal (Arty) WORONEZH, known as Commander of Artillery of the Armed Forces.
- (6) Admiral GULOVKO, Deputy CinC of the Soviet Navy and Chief of the Main Naval Staff
- (7) Admiral KHARLANOV, (present appointment unknown), presumably assigned to the High Command of the Soviet Navy.

It is to be noted that Marshal YAKOVLEV was given as Deputy Minister of the Armed Forces. This indicates that the Main Administration of Artillery is, as during World War II, still responsible for the entire ammunition supply of all branches
